Call to Worship

Joyce Bell

In the sanctuary, God, the Holy One, whose glory fills the whole earth, calls us.

Beside the sea, along ordinary paths,
in our daily work, God calls us.

We respond with our whole heart,
singing God's praise and giving thanks.

In steadfast love, God fulfills the divine purposes for our lives.

New Testament Reading

I Corinthians 15:1-11

Greg Caudill

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

This is the Word of our Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Anthem

Beside the Quiet Waters
Based on Psalm 23; Dana Mengel

Chancel Choir

*Beside the quiet water that runs so deep and full,
O Lord, You lead my weary feet and quench my thirsty soul.
In times of want or plenty, in times of loss or gain,
You faithfully provide for me with charity and grace.
Your rod and staff they comfort me; no evil will I fear;
for your love and mercy follow me when You, O Lord, are near.*

*In times of grief or sorrow you are my help and aid,
You cover me with healing wings when storms around me rage.
And in the rich green meadows, You gently lay me down, beneath the sky, where someday I will wear a heavenly crown.
Your rod and staff they comfort me; no evil will I fear;
for your love and mercy follow me when You, O Lord, are near.*

Prayer of Confession

God of the universe and Creator of all that is, we admit that we fail to be honest about our lives
and in the politics of life.

Sometimes we are deceitful;
other times we judge ourselves harshly
and feel unworthy of your call on our lives.
Touch us with your grace and dispel our fear,
that we may arise with renewed spirits
to serve you, our true Sovereign. Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness

The promise is this:

God is faithful and steadfast,
eager to forgive our sin and welcome us home.
Grateful for this promise of joy and of peace,
let us share the peace of Christ with one another.

Children's Church is offered today for ages 4–3rd grade.

Peggy Foskett

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

This is the Word of our Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the People

Prayer for the Week

God of Justice,

In your wisdom you create all people in your image, without exception. Through your goodness, open our eyes to see the dignity, beauty, and worth of every human being. Open our minds to understand that all your children are brothers and sisters in the same human family. Open our hearts to repent of racist attitudes, behaviors, and speech which demean others. Open our ears to hear the cries of those wounded by racial discrimination, and their passionate appeals for change. Strengthen our resolve to make amends for past injustices and to right the wrongs of history. And fill us with courage that we might seek to heal wounds, build bridges, forgive and be forgiven, and establish peace and equality for all in our communities. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
