Prelude

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling
Rick Parks

Shelley Shumate

*During the prelude, you are invited to make the transition from getting here to being here.
Use this time to prepare for worship, and allow the Spirit to refresh you.*

Introit

At the Table
Josh Garrels

Josh Whitaker

*I went the ways of wayward winds, in a world of trouble and sin, walked a long and crooked mile, behind a million rank and file.
Forgot where I came from, somewhere back when I was young.
I was a good man's child.*

*'Cause I lost some nameless things, my innocence flew away from me.
She had to hide her face from my desire to embrace forbidden fire.
But at night I dream, she's singing over me. "Oh my child."*

*"Come on home, home to me. And I will hold you in my arms and joyful be.
There will always be a place for you at my table. Return to me."*

*Wondering where I might begin, I hear a voice upon the wind.
She's singing faint but singing true,*

"Son, there ain't nothing you can do. But listen close and follow me, I'll take you where you're meant to be. Just don't lose faith."

*So I put my hand upon the plow. Wipe the sweat up from my brow.
Plant the good seed along the way, as I look forward to the day
When at last I'll see, my father run to me, singing "Oh, my child."*

New Testament Reading

I Corinthians 13:1-3

Kyran Kennedy

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

This is the Word of our Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the People

Sara Turpin

Prayer of Confession

God of life,
we admit to you and to each other
that we have not always lived lives of love.
We have lost patience and been rude.
We have been irritable and insisted on our own way.
We have even let love end.
Forgive us and heal us, dear God,
through Jesus Christ, your love incarnate. Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness

God has loved us since the beginning,
and God's love for us will never end.
Do not fear, therefore,
but have faith in God's steadfast love, God's healing power,
and God's ability to make all things new.

*Gospel Reading

John 2:1-11

Roxie Hoffman

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

This is the Word of our Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the People

Prayer from our Churchwide Winter Retreat

Seven Sacred Pauses

by Macrina Wiederkehr

Come, sit at our table. Be present in the bread we break and share.

It is our daily bread lifted out of both grace and struggle.

It is the bread of compassion and joy, sorrow and courage.

We bless you who have journeyed with us through the hours of this day.

Now it is evening, and the day is almost spent.

Come to our supper table. Be our guest.

Let us see your face in each of our table companions.

At this hour light the lamps of our hearts and attend our deepest hungers.

May it be so!
