The Worship of God

Welcome and Passing of the Peace
The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

*During the prelude, you are invited to make the transition from getting here to being here.
Use this time to prepare for worship, and allow the Spirit to refresh you.*

Call to Worship

Kellie Hicks

God built the heavens, the earth, and everything in them.

God calls us to be builders as well.

God calls us to build our lives:

to restore broken places and continue to grow.

God calls us to build our faith:

to study the Word and ponder its interpretation.

God calls us to build our community:

to build bridges of understanding and systems of justice.

God calls us to build history by fulfilling the promises of Scripture:

to preach the good news of God's love and liberation for all people.

New Testament Reading

I Corinthians 12:12-26

Kathy Leichty

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot would say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear would say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.” On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

This is the Word of our Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the People

Jerry Benfield

Prayer of Confession

God of our Restoration,
whenever we come home to you,
we realize how far we have strayed
and how much we have forgotten
of your law and your love.
We have not loved you with our whole hearts
or loved our neighbors as ourselves.
Forgive us, heal us,
and restore us to our relationship with you;
through Jesus Christ, in whom we trust. Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness

Hear the good news:
You have been restored in the grace of God.
Do not mourn, therefore, but rejoice,
for this is a new day for you and for me.

Anthem I Know Your Heart of Grace Chancel Choir
Faye Lopez and Sara Turpin, Flute

*Though my heart and strength shall fail, peace gives way and fears prevail;
turning to You, there I find so much love and One so kind.
When my hopes are lost, or so it sees, I am left with broken dreams.
Turning in faith to what is true, I see the path that leads to you.*

*Through the clouds of day and dark of night, I see Your loving ways;
reminded that you are ever true, I know Your heart of grace.
Winds will blow and seasons change; always You remain the same.
Guide my steps when I would fall, I find in You my All in All.*

*Gospel Reading Luke 4:14-21 David Beverly

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.” And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

This is the Word of our Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the People

Prayers from last week's Churchwide Winter Retreat by Macrina Wiederkehr

O God of All...

All peoples, all nations, all seasons, all years, all hours and days – you, who have invited us to love, hear our cry!

Make our spirits free, our hearts open, our minds healthy, our souls awake.

Then we will be able to love as you have asked:

with all our hearts, all our minds, all our souls.

*The all is frightening, yet in our deepest moments of truth
we know that this is what we desire.*

O God of all, hear us.

O Ancient Love...

*Teach us to die before we die so that our final death
will be a great healing, drawing us into deeper life.*

Show us the face of surrender that we may know at the end of each day what to let go of and what to keep.

Fill us with your own wisdom. Amen.

Welcome to Buechel Park Baptist Church

How to Join our Church

If you wish to join this congregation, simply come forward during the Hymn of Response and speak to our pastor about your decision. Or you also may also talk to any ministerial staff member or church member after the service. We receive members by profession of faith and baptism, transfer of letter, statement, or watchcare.

Children

Nursery is provided for ages 3 and younger. Ages 4 - 3rd grade join us for worship, but are often dismissed after the Children's Moment for Children's Church. Worship resources are available in the narthex.

For more information

For more information about our church, please visit the narthex in the back of the sanctuary or you may speak with any of our ministers or members after worship. Find us online at www.bpbaptist.org and like us on Facebook.
